

Palm Sunday

March 14, 2024

Palm Sunday introduces Holy Week each year. There are few dates in the year on which we know precisely what Jesus was doing on that day. Palm Sunday is one of them (Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter, and Ascension Day are some of the others).

On this day, Jesus rode into Jerusalem and was recognized as the Messiah, the coming king. Unfortunately, few, if any, really knew the character of His messiahship and kingship. The donkey should have been a clue.

It seems as though the crowds were looking for a political savior, an economic savior, or a social savior. No one was looking for a savior who would suffer and die on the cross for the forgiveness of sins. John the Baptist pointed to Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world but his words were forgotten by this time.

Palm Sunday is a celebration recognizing Jesus as Messiah and king. It is important, however, that we recognize Him for who He is rather than who we think He should be. Jesus did not come into the world to give you success in business. Jesus did not come into the world to provide an easy and carefree life for you. Jesus came into the world to be your Savior and grant to you eternal life through faith in Him.

Next week as we celebrate His resurrection, we will look back on the events of Holy Week and see God's divine purpose. He came that you may have life, eternal life with God forever. "Let the clear inscription be: Jesus, crucified for me!"

A suggestion for a fun project, make paper palm branches for Palm Sunday. Directions for this palm branch can be found on youtube at <https://youtu.be/YRcf95hKdB4>

L In the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

C Hosanna to the Son of David.

P Let us pray: Most merciful God, as the people of Jerusalem, with palms in their hands, gathered to greet Your dearly beloved Son when He came into His Holy City, grant that we may ever hail Him as our King and, when He comes again, may go forth to meet Him with trusting and steadfast hearts and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P We praise and thank you, O God, for the great acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day He entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph and was acclaimed Son of David and King of kings by those who scattered their garments and branches of palm in his path.

We ask that you bless children and all those who celebrate with us Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. Grant that we may ever hail Jesus as our Lord and King and follow him with perfect confidence; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

P Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

C Hosanna to the Son of David.

L Holy God, holy and most gracious Father,

C have mercy and hear us.

L Let us, confess before God that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and as His people let us take refuge in His infinite mercy seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, saying:

C God, be merciful to me, a sinner, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen. (Luke 18:13)

L Almighty God, merciful Father, in Your holy Church, You daily and richly forgive us our sins and grant us new life through Your Spirit. Be in our midst, enliven our faith, and graciously receive our prayer and praise; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

Introit Psalm 24:7–10; antiphon Psalm 118:26

L Blessèd is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

We bless you from the house of the Lord.

C Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

L Who is this King of glory?

The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle!

C Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

L Who is this King of glory?

The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory!

C Blessèd is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

We bless you from the house of the Lord.

Collect of the Day

L Let us pray: Almighty God, You sent Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take our flesh upon Him and to suffer death on the cross. Grant that we may share in His obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of His resurrection; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

Zechariah 9:9-12

⁹Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!

Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem!

behold, your king is coming to you;

righteous and having salvation is he,

humble and mounted on a donkey,

on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem;

and the battle bow shall be cut off,
 and he shall speak peace to the nations;
 his rule shall be from sea to sea,
 and from the River to the ends of the earth.
¹¹As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
 I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.
¹²Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;
 today I declare that I will restore to you double.

- L This is the Word of the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hebrews 9:12a, c, 15a; Psalm 111:9a

- L [Christ] entered once for all into the holy places, by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption.
C Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant,
so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.
L He sent redemption to his people;
C he has commanded his covenant forever.

Psalm 118:19–29

- L ¹⁹Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD.
C ²⁰This is the gate of the LORD; the righteous shall enter through it.
L ²¹I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation.
C ²²The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
L ²³This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.
C ²⁴This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

C You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God; I will extol you.
L ²⁹Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
C for his steadfast love endures forever!

Philippians 2:5-11

⁵Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. ⁹Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

- L This is the Word of the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

Verse of the Day: Joel 2:13; Philippians 2:8b

- L Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love;
- C He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Matthew 21:1-9

- L The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 21st chapter.
- C Glory to You, O Lord.

¹Now when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, “Go into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.” ⁴This took place to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, saying, ⁵“Say to the daughter of Zion, ‘Behold, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.’”

⁶The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and the colt and put on them their cloaks, and he sat on them. ⁸Most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹And the crowds that went before him and that followed him were shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”

- L This is the Gospel of the Lord.
- C Praise to You, O Christ.

The Apostles' Creed

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven

and sits at the right hand of God the Father
Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living
and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Devotional thoughts:

During the Covid-19 pandemic, the governor visited a nearby town to promote vaccinations. The visit made headlines. The evening news covered the story. People were proud to have the governor visit our little corner of the state!

However, trips by our governor to Washington, D.C. are met with a yawn. There are many more important people there. No one notices senators, representatives, or governors.

Now let's consider Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday. It is the home of the High Priest and all the religious leaders. The Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, is in town for the annual observance of the Passover. His usual residence is many miles away on the shore of the Mediterranean in Caesarea. Even Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee and Perea, has come to Jerusalem. In addition, thousands of people from all over have come to celebrate Passover.

Now pause and reflect on this. A young man from Galilee came to this city riding on a donkey and the crowds went wild! This is even more incredible when you remember that there was no X (formerly known as Twitter), Facebook, or cable news! Nevertheless, the crowds recognized Jesus as the most significant man to come to town. We can imagine that large numbers of people came to Jerusalem hoping to see Jesus. In fact, Herod, himself, was harboring this desire. Luke reports that Pilate sent Jesus to Herod and "When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had long desired to see him, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign done by him" (Luke 23:8). For this brief moment in history, Jesus was the talk of the town.

Of course, He was not known to everyone. Not everyone loved and admired Him. Pilate was living in his own little Roman bubble, ignorant of the dreams of common folk. Most of the religious leaders despised Him. When Nicodemus spoke up for Jesus (John 7:50-52), he was ridiculed. No one who supported Jesus could be tolerated in the council.

Yet with all of this acclaim and name recognition, they all were completely wrong about Jesus. Yes, people knew the Old Testament prophecies of the Messiah.

They knew Zechariah 9:9:

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your king is coming to you;
righteous and having salvation is he,
humble and mounted on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

They knew Psalm 118:25-26:

Save us [Hosanna], we pray, O Lord!
O Lord, we pray, give us success!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
We bless you from the house of the Lord.

They knew that King David's greater Son would one day come but they completely misunderstood who Jesus was and why He came.

The religious leaders were also wrong about Jesus. They thought that He came to stir up a revolt among the people and that they would lose their positions of prominence and power.

Did Jesus come to be the king? Yes, indeed He did. Did He come to be the kind of king that they expected? No, not at all. Jesus told Pilate, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world" (John 18:36).

He didn't come to expel the Romans. He didn't come to unseat the religious leaders. He was the king who came to save sinners. He did this on the cross where everyone could read the words written above His head, "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews" (John 19:19).

Even today, many people are wrong about Jesus. Some of His followers want to topple political leaders in His name. Others believe He has called them to change the culture. Many believe that he came to bring fame and fortune to his faithful followers. These same thoughts were in the minds and the hearts of the people on that first Palm Sunday. But they were wrong.

In Luke 4:18 (KJV) Jesus tells us why He came, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised."

Why do we celebrate Palm Sunday with such vigor today? We know that the Humble King came to save us. He came to bind up our broken hearts. He came to bring the Good news. He came to release captives from bondage to sin. He came that our blind eyes would see Him by faith. He came to save us from sin, death, and the Devil.

"Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:4-7).

God's richest blessings to you in Christ.

Prayers

L Heavenly Father, as we join our “hosannas” with faithful Christians throughout the world, thank You for sending Your only-begotten Son to save us now and always. Grant that we would learn humility and service from Him and His service to us on the cross, through the same Jesus Christ, Our Lord.

C Amen.

L Heavenly Father, as we enter Holy Week, grant us true and sincere hearts as we walk with Jesus to Calvary’s holy mountain.

C Amen.

L Heavenly Father, grant that corrupt words and sinful actions would never turn our “hosannas” into shouts of “crucify Him.” When we stumble and fall into evil ways, grant us repentance and forgiveness,

C Amen.

L Lord God, heavenly Father, we here remember the sufferings and death of Your dear Son, Jesus Christ, for our salvation. Praising His victorious resurrection from the dead, we draw strength from His ascension before You, where He ever stands for us as our own High Priest. Gather us together, we pray, from the ends of the earth to celebrate with all the faithful the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom, which has no end. Graciously receive our prayers, deliver and preserve us, for to You alone we give all glory, honor, and worship, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

L O God, bless our president and all our leaders that we may be governed wisely and justly for the good of all. Guard those who protect us, especially our armed forces, police, and firefighters.

C Amen.

L O God of peace, during this time of war in the ancient land of Jesus' birth and in Ukraine, we pray that You would grant a swift end to the conflict and lasting peace, that right and justice would prevail, and that You would grant Your mighty hand of protection to the innocent and helpless.

C Amen.

L Visit us in Your compassion, O Lord. Deliver the sick from their infirmity, the troubled from their afflictions, the grieving from their sorrow, and the dying from their fear. May all who cry to You receive grace according to Your will. Help each of us to bear our crosses with patience and grace.

C Amen.

L Gracious Lord, help us to keep our ways pure by guarding our lives with Your word. Move us to seek you with our whole hearts and to delight in your statutes through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

C I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

L Let us bless the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

L The Lord bless us, defend us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

C Amen.

Enhancing Your Worship

Meditating on God's Word and Works

I will meditate on your wondrous works. Psalm 119:27
My eyes are awake through the night watches,
That I may meditate on Your word. Psalm 119:148 NKJV

The Week of Palm Sunday and Holy Week March 25 – 30, 2024 Maundy Thursday, March 28 Good Friday, March 29

Introduction

Most modern forms of mediation turn a person inward. Biblical meditation turns a person outward toward what God has said and done especially what He has said and done through Jesus for our salvation.

Each Sunday has its own special theme directing us to meditate on God's word and actions. This theme is found in the Propers of the Day (the parts of the service that change week to week). From Advent through the Easter season these themes focus our attention on the life of Jesus from His birth to His death and resurrection. There is always much more in the propers than can be covered in any Sunday service. God willing, I will use the propers for Sunday to provide you with a devotion each day to help you mediate on what God has done for you.

L O Lord, C Have Mercy on us.
L O Christ, C Have Mercy on us.
L O Lord, C Have Mercy on us.

I must confess. I have a fascination with the television show, “The Curse of Oak Island.” If you are unfamiliar with this History Channel program, here is a short description.

In 1965, two young brothers, Rick and Marty Lagina, read an article in the January edition of Reader’s Digest titled, “Oak Island’s Mysterious ‘Money Pit’.” They were fascinated by the description of what was then a 170-year search for buried treasure. This began their lifelong interest in the island and its secrets. Now as adults with time and money available to them, they have taken up the search for buried treasure.

The Lagina brothers are just the latest to be interested in this treasure. In 1909, the 27-year-old future president, Franklin Roosevelt, was part of the treasure hunt. So far, interesting clues have been found but no treasure. In my opinion, more money has been spent on the search than any treasure could be worth. But the search goes on.

This all comes to mind because in the last few years, I, too, have become interested in lost and buried treasures. I am fascinated by the lost treasures of the Christian Church. Palm Sunday presents us with another opportunity to find a treasure!

The introit for today contains these verses from Psalm 24:7-10:

Lift up your heads, O gates!
And be lifted up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
Who is this King of glory?
The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle!
Lift up your heads, O gates!
And lift them up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
Who is this King of glory?
The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory!

If you are familiar with the Christian Church year, your mind might immediately jump to Advent. The lost treasure that we discover today is the connection between Advent and Palm Sunday! They both are concerned with the coming king. When the Wisemen came from the east, they were trying to find a treasure. They arrived in Jerusalem asking the question, “Where is he who has been born king of the Jews?” (Matthew 2:2). On Palm Sunday, the baby born in Bethlehem rides into Jerusalem as the humble king sought by the Magi.

For your meditation today, consider this Advent hymn:

Lift Up Your Heads, Ye Mighty Gates

C Amen.

The collect for this week reminds us that Palm Sunday is the first day of Holy Week and the remembering of Christ's passion. Jesus' ministry, indeed his entire life, was focused on this week when the spotless Lamb of God would be sacrificed for the sins of the world. We enjoy the privilege of seeing beyond the cross to His resurrection but let us not neglect to understand the depth of the suffering Jesus endured for us.

This week presents us with the opportunity to read the accounts of Jesus' passion. Here are the references from the four Gospels:

Matthew 26 & 27
Mark 14 & 15
Luke 22 & 23
John 18 & 19

Let us pray: Almighty God, You sent Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take our flesh upon Him and to suffer death on the cross. Grant that we may share in His obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of His resurrection; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Palm Sunday crowds placed their cloaks on the ground. Some placed palm branches on the path to make a carpet for the King to ride on! This sight was so amazing that it has been remembered and celebrated throughout history to this very day.

They also shouted their praise quoting Psalm 118.

- ²⁵Save us [Hosanna], we pray, O LORD! O LORD, we pray, give us success!
- ²⁶Blessèd is he who comes in the name of the Lord! We bless you from the house of the Lord.

We continue to rejoice in the coming of our Savior-King through word and sacrament. We make these Palm Sunday words our own each time we sing the Sanctus before the Lord's Supper.

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of Sabaoth; heav'n and earth are full of Thy glory.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He, blessed is He, blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Prayer: O Lord, thank you for coming into our lives through word and sacrament. Grant that the joy of Palm Sunday would be renewed in us each time we remember these words of Psalm 118. Amen.

Maundy Thursday March 28

Jesus, I Will Ponder Now - 4
Grant that I Your passion view
With repentant grieving.
Let me not bring shame to You
By unholy living.
How could I refuse to shun
Ev'ry sinful pleasure
Since for me God's only Son
Suffered without measure?

The name Maundy is derived through Middle English and Old French from the Latin word for “commandment” It was on this night Jesus said, “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another” (John 13:34-35).

Maundy Thursday is the night Jesus was betrayed. We are reminded of this each time the Words of Institution of the Lord’s Supper are spoken. While celebrating the Passover with his beloved disciples, Jesus instituted the Sacrament of the Altar. In it, He gives His very body and blood in, with, and under the bread and the wine for us Christians to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins.

Luther's Small Catechism

The Sacrament of the Altar

AS THE HEAD OF THE FAMILY SHOULD TEACH IT IN A SIMPLE WAY TO HIS HOUSEHOLD

- L What is the Sacrament of the Altar?
- C It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, instituted by Christ Himself for us Christians to eat and to drink.
- L Where is this written?
- C The holy Evangelists Matthew, Mark, Luke, and St. Paul write:
Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: “Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.”
In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”
- L What is the benefit of this eating and drinking?
- C These words, “Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins,” show us that in the Sacrament forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation are given us through these words. For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.
- L How can bodily eating and drinking do such great things?
- C Certainly not just eating and drinking do these things, but the words written here: “Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.” These words, along with the bodily eating and drinking, are the main thing in the Sacrament. Whoever believes these words has exactly what they say: “forgiveness of sins.”
- L Who receives this sacrament worthily?
- C Fasting and bodily preparation are certainly fine outward training. But that person is truly worthy and well prepared who has faith in these words: “Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.”
But anyone who does not believe these words or doubts them is unworthy and unprepared, for the words “for you” require all hearts to believe.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST DRAWN FROM THE FOUR GOSPELS

The Lord's Supper: Part I

† Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, also called the Passover, drew near, and Jesus said to his disciples:
“You know that after two days is the Feast of the Passover, and the Son of Man will be given over to be crucified.”

† Then the chief priests and scribes assembled with the elders of the people in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, and consulted how they might take Jesus craftily and put him to death. But they said, “Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people,” for they feared the people.

† Then Satan entered into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, one of the Twelve. He went his way to the chief priests and captains and spoke together with them how he might betray Jesus to them. They were glad to hear him. He said to them, “What will you give me to betray him to you?”

They promised to give him money and agreed with him for thirty pieces of silver. He accepted, and from that time he sought opportunity to betray him in the absence of the multitude.

† Then came the first day of Unleavened Bread when they sacrificed the Passover lamb. Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover, that we may eat it.”

They said to him, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”

† He said to them, “Go into the city and, when you have entered the city, watch for a man bearing a pitcher of water. When he meets you, follow him into the house where he enters. You shall say to the man who lives there, ‘The Master says to you, “My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house. Where is room for me to eat the Passover with my disciples?’” And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us.”

The disciples did as Jesus had directed them. They came into the city and found it as he had told them; and they made ready the Passover.

Psalm 116:12–19 (antiphon: v. 17)

¹²What shall I render to the LORD for all his benefits to me?

¹³I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD, ¹⁴I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.

¹⁵Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

¹⁶O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your maidservant. You have loosed my bonds.

¹⁷I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁸I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, ¹⁹in the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST DRAWN FROM THE FOUR GOSPELS

The Lord’s Supper: Part II

† When the hour was come, Jesus sat down and the apostles with him. As they were eating, he said, “I have longed to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for I say to you I shall not eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of me.”

† In the same way also he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you; this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

“Truly I say to you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father.”

† There was also a strife among them as to which of them should be accounted the greatest. He said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ It shall not be so among you. He that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that serves. For who is greater, he that sits at the table or he that serves? Is it not he that sits at the table? But I am among you as a servant. You are they who have continued with me in my temptations. I appoint you to a kingdom, as my Father has appointed me. You shall eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

† Jesus knew that his hour was come to depart from the world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who are in the world, he loved them to the end. Already Satan had put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him. Jesus knew that the Father had given all things into his hands and that he had come from God and was going to God.

Verse of the Day John 13:1b

L Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST DRAWN FROM THE FOUR GOSPELS

The Lord's Supper: Part III

† He rose from supper, laid aside his garments, and girded himself with a towel. He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded.

† When he came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you do not know now, but after these things you will understand."

Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with me."

Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head."

Jesus said to him, "He who has been bathed does not need to wash more than his feet, for he is clean altogether. You are clean, but not all of you." He knew who was to betray him; that was why he said not every one was clean.

† So after he had washed their feet and taken his garments and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me the Master and the Lord, and it is good that you say this, for so I am. If I, then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. I have done this to show you the way to do as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his lord; neither is he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If you know these things, happy are you if you do them.

"I do not speak of you all; I know whom I have chosen. The Scripture must be fulfilled, 'He that eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.' Already now I tell you of this, before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe that I am he.

"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives anyone whom I shall send, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives him who sent me."

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven

and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From thence He will come to judge the living
and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Devotional Thoughts

The account of Jesus washing the disciples' feet is recorded in John 13:1-20. It happened "on the night He was betrayed"—Maundy Thursday. After the foot washing, Jesus declared, "If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you" (John 13:14-15).

Jesus characterizes this humble act of foot washing as the vocation of his disciples. This attitude of humility and service also ought to occupy present-day disciples of Jesus.

Ironically, immediately following this sincere act of love, Judas left the room to betray Jesus! Jesus' love did not penetrate Judas' heart. He was intent on following his own desires and his own course of action.

Holy Week is a time for us to ponder Jesus' holy passion. We meditate on His anguish and affliction. We see His extraordinary love for us and all humanity.

And then we forget. We immediately leave Jesus behind to serve our own self-interests. We forget to wash feet and serve others. We forget His new commandment to love one another.

We need forgiveness. We need the forgiveness that Jesus won for us on the cross. We don't just need it now and then. We need it every minute of every day for the rest of our lives here on earth!

Lent has been a time of repentance and returning to the Lord. But Lent is simply a reminder that we constantly must repent and return to the Lord and receive His absolution.

We receive this gracious blessing of forgiveness by faith! We receive it through the word of absolution. We receive it through the water and the word of baptism. We receive it through Christ's body and blood in, with, and under the bread and wine consecrated by the word of God. As long as we have faith, we are never without this forgiveness (Romans 5:2). We stand secure in our Savior's mercy until we reach our heavenly home.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST DRAWN FROM THE FOUR GOSPELS

The Lord's Supper: Part IV

† When Jesus had said these things, his spirit was in turmoil. He bore witness and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you will betray me."

The disciples looked at one another dumbfounded about whom he spoke. One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was leaning on Jesus' bosom. Simon Peter said to him, "Ask who it is of whom he is speaking."

That disciple who was reclining on Jesus' chest said to him, "Lord, who is it?"

† Jesus then answered, "It is the one to whom I shall give the piece of bread after I have dipped it."

He dipped the piece of bread he had in his hand and gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. After the piece of bread had been dipped, Satan entered into that one. Jesus said to him, "What you are doing, do quickly."

† No one at the table knew what the purpose was of what Jesus had said to him. Because Judas kept the money bag, some thought Jesus had told him to buy what was needed for the feast or to give something to the poor. When that man had received the piece of bread, he went out immediately, and it was night.

† When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and in him God is glorified. If God is glorified in him, God will glorify him in himself, and at once he will glorify him."

† "Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going you cannot come.' A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another as I have loved you. For this I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

† Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?"

Jesus answered him, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but afterwards you will follow me."

“Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!” John the Baptist spoke this prophetic phrase at the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. Today we see these words fulfilled, as we meditate on the death of the Son of God on our behalf. In His death, we have life.

Good Friday is the most solemn of days in the Church Year. On Good Friday Jesus was on the cross from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. From Noon until 3 p.m. there was darkness. A Tenebrae (Service of Darkness) service recalls the darkness that accompanied the sacrifice of the Lamb of God.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ From the Gospel of John

John 18

Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

¹When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron Valley, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. ²Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. ³So Judas, having procured a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons. ⁴Then Jesus, knowing all that would happen to him, came forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" ⁵They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. ⁶When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground. ⁷So he asked them again, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." ⁸Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. So, if you seek me, let these men go." ⁹This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken: "Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one." ¹⁰Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) ¹¹So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Jesus Before the High Priest

¹²So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound him. ¹³First they led him to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ¹⁴It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it would be expedient that one man should die for the people.

Introit Psalm 38:1–4, 18, 22; antiphon: Isaiah 53:5

- L He was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities;
 upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed.
- C O Lord, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath!
- L For your arrows have sunk into me,
 and your hand has come down on me.
- C There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation;
 there is no health in my bones because of my sin.
- L For my iniquities have gone over my head;
 like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
- C I confess my iniquity;
 I am sorry for my sin.
- L Make haste to help me,
 O Lord, my salvation!
- C He was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities;
 upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ From the Gospel of John

Peter Denies Jesus

¹⁵Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest, ¹⁶but Peter stood outside at the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the servant girl who kept watch at the door, and brought Peter in. ¹⁷The servant girl at the door said to Peter, “You also are not one of this man’s disciples, are you?” He said, “I am not.” ¹⁸Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

¹⁹The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, “I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. ²¹Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them; they know what I said.” ²²When he had said these things, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, “Is that how you answer the high priest?” ²³Jesus answered him, “If what I said is wrong, bear witness about the wrong; but if what I said is right, why do you strike me?” ²⁴Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Jesus Again

²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, “You also are not one of his disciples, are you?” He denied it and said, “I am not.” ²⁶One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Did I not see you in the garden with him?” ²⁷Peter again denied it, and at once a rooster crowed.

Kyrie

☩ Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Collect

℟ Let us pray: Almighty God, graciously behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

☩ Amen.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ From the Gospel of John

Jesus Before Pilate

²⁸Then they led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the governor’s headquarters. It was early morning. They themselves did not enter the governor’s headquarters, so that they would not be defiled, but could eat the Passover. ²⁹So Pilate went outside to them and said, “What accusation do you bring against this man?” ³⁰They answered him, “If this man were not doing evil, we would not have delivered him over to you.” ³¹Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law.” The Jews said to him, “It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death.” ³²This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to show by what kind of death he was going to die.

My Kingdom Is Not of This World

³³So Pilate entered his headquarters again and called Jesus and said to him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” ³⁴Jesus answered, “Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?” ³⁵Pilate answered, “Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you over to me. What have you done?” ³⁶Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world.” ³⁷Then Pilate said to him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice.” ³⁸Pilate said to him, “What is truth?”

After he had said this, he went back outside to the Jews and told them, “I find no guilt in him. ³⁹But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?” ⁴⁰They cried out again, “Not this man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a robber.

Psalm 22:1-11

¹My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

²O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.

³Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

⁴In you our fathers trusted; they trusted, and you delivered them.

⁵To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame.

⁶But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by mankind and despised by the people.

⁷All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;

⁸“He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!”

⁹Yet you are he who took me from the womb; you made me trust you at my mother’s breasts.

¹⁰On you was I cast from my birth, and from my mother’s womb you have been my God.

¹¹Be not far from me, for trouble is near,

and there is none to help.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ From the Gospel of John

John 19

Jesus Delivered to Be Crucified

¹Then Pilate took Jesus and flogged him. ²And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him in a purple robe. ³They came up to him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and struck him with their hands. ⁴Pilate went out again and said to them, “See, I am bringing him out to you that you may know that I find no guilt in him.” ⁵So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, “Behold the man!” ⁶When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, “Crucify him, crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him.” ⁷The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has made himself the Son of God.” ⁸When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid. ⁹He entered his headquarters again and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰So Pilate said to him, “You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you and authority to crucify you?” ¹¹Jesus answered him, “You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin.”

¹²From then on Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, “If you release this man, you are not Caesar’s friend. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar.” ¹³So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Stone Pavement, and in Aramaic Gabbatha. ¹⁴Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, “Behold your King!” ¹⁵They cried out, “Away with him, away with him, crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.” ¹⁶So he delivered him over to them to be crucified.

Psalm 22:14–19

¹⁴I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint;

my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast;

¹⁵my strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death.

¹⁶For dogs encompass me; a company of evildoers encircles me; they have pierced my hands and feet—

¹⁷I can count all my bones—they stare and gloat over me;

¹⁸they divide my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.

¹⁹But you, O LORD, do not be far off! O you my help, come quickly to my aid!

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ From the Gospel of John

The Crucifixion

So they took Jesus, ¹⁷and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which in Aramaic is called Golgotha. ¹⁸There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. ¹⁹Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” ²⁰Many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek. ²¹So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but rather, ‘This man said, I am King of the Jews.’” ²²Pilate answered, “What I have written I have written.”

²³When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his garments and divided them into four parts, one part for each soldier; also his tunic. But the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom, ²⁴so they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be.” This was to fulfill the Scripture which says,

“They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.”

So the soldiers did these things, ²⁵but standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son!” ²⁷Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

The Death of Jesus

²⁸After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), “I thirst.” ²⁹A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. ³⁰When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, “It is finished,” and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Jesus’ Side Is Pierced

³¹Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. ³²So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. ³³But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. ³⁴But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. ³⁵He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe. ³⁶For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: “Not one of his bones will be broken.” ³⁷ And again another Scripture says, “They will look on him whom they have pierced.”

☩ Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ From the Gospel of John

Jesus Is Buried

³⁸After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. ³⁹Nicodemus also, who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds in weight. ⁴⁰So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. ⁴¹Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. ⁴²So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

Devotional Thoughts

Tetelestai is a single Greek word translated as a three-word sentence in English, “It is finished” (John 19:30). Some Bible translations use “It is completed.” Tetelestai does not have the sense of “I’m glad that this is over.” Rather, imagine a great painter placing the last stroke of the brush on a masterpiece. The work of art can get no better. No fewer strokes would be enough. He steps back and declares, “It is finished!”

This is the sense of Jesus’ loud exclamation from the cross. Everything that He came to accomplish for the forgiveness of sins is complete. Nothing more needs to be added. Nothing more can be added. The books are closed. It is finished. You and I are saved from sin, death, and the devil. Life eternal is ours!

Over the years I’ve heard people say things such as, “I hope I’m good enough to go to heaven” or “I’m not bad enough to go to hell.” What sad and depressing thoughts these are! They expose a belief that there is something that you and I need to add to our salvation. They express the idea that Jesus’ death on the cross was only a down payment for our debt of sin and the remaining payments must be made by our own personal acts of righteousness.

This way of thinking can only lead to the smugness of the Pharisees or the despair of hopelessness. It is ultimately contrary to Scripture. If we expect that our own righteousness will add to our salvation, we need to remember Isaiah 64:6, “All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags!” None of us can dare to believe that we have added to Jesus’ righteousness. Our personal holiness is nothing more than filthy. That is why we need a savior.

In providing that savior, God did not leave the job half done, requiring each individual Christian to finish the work. No, it is finished!

Some believe that Tetelestai is the word Martin Luther was thinking of when he wrote his most well-known hymn, “A Mighty Fortress is our God.” Stanza three ends with this phrase, “One little word can fell him.”

In his early years, Luther never could believe that he was good enough to go to heaven. He was acutely aware of all of his shortcomings. He couldn’t believe that a righteous and holy God would ever accept him into eternity. Then his eyes were opened to the fact that the righteousness required by God is provided by God in Christ. We receive it by faith. Our sins are removed and placed upon Jesus. He paid for them on the cross and then declared, “It is finished,” “Salvation is completed!”

Ever after, when Satan would attack him with the thought of his unworthiness, Luther would remember this word of Jesus, “Tetelestai!”—“It is finished. Consider “A Mighty Fortress” stanza three with this in mind.

Though devils all the world should fill,
All eager to devour us,
We tremble not, we fear no ill;

They shall not overpow'r us.
 This world's prince may still Scowl fierce as he will,
 He can harm us none.
 He's judged; the deed is done;
 One little word can fell him.

May God grant to you peace and comfort from the words of Jesus. May you rest secure in His loving arms knowing that your salvation was completed by Him on the cross.

+ THE WORDS FROM THE CROSS +

+ THE FIRST WORD +

- L Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Prince of Peace. When you were mocked, you did not respond with harsh words.
- C When you were tormented, you did not react in anger.
- L When you were nailed to the cross, you prayed forgiveness for those who caused you to suffer.
- C Give to us the virtues of gentleness, patience, and a forgiving spirit, that we may repay evil with good.
- L Teach us to love our enemies, and as children of the heavenly Father, to live in peace with all people.
- C Amen.

Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.

(The first candle is extinguished.)

+ THE SECOND WORD +

- L Lord Jesus Christ, in your infinite mercy you heard the plea of the dying thief on the cross next to you.
- C We pray that you would open our hearts in mercy to welcome those who turn to you, and rejoice in their salvation.
- L When our last hour comes, hold us firm in our faith, and bring us also to live with you in Paradise.
- C Amen.

I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise.

(The second candle is extinguished.)

+ THE THIRD WORD +

- L Lord Jesus Christ, while you suffered the agony of the cross, your thoughts turned to the welfare of others. Your concern was for your mother in her sorrow.
- C We pray that you would regard with pity all parents who mourn the death of their children, and all parents who sorrow because their children have gotten into trouble or forsaken their faith.
- L By the power of your healing, we pray that parents and children may know peace, and that relationships may be restored.
- C Amen.

Dear Woman, here is your son. Here is your mother.

(The third candle is extinguished.)

+ THE FOURTH WORD +

- L Lord God, Father of all people and Creator of all that exists, you hold all people in your power.
- C We pray that you would not forsake the world which your Son died to redeem.
- L Even though we still see the influence of sin and evil all around us,
- C assure us of your continued presence in our midst.
- L Help us to know your love in our lives, so we can show your presence to others.
- C Amen.

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

(The fourth candle is extinguished.)

+ THE FIFTH WORD +

- L Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, you endured not only spiritual anguish but also physical pain on the cross in our place.
- C We thirst for the healing that only you can provide.
- L When we find ourselves suffering, give us peace and patience to endure the pain that comes our way.
- C Bring to our minds all that you endured for us.
- L Give us the strength to bear our burdens by the grace of your holy example.
- C Amen.

I am thirsty.

(The fifth candle is extinguished.)

+ THE SIXTH WORD +

- L Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Author and Finisher of our faith. You did not stop short of finishing the task given to you by your Father.
- C We pray that you would complete in us also, everything that you intend for us.
- L So that as children of the heavenly Father, we may live for his glory.
- C Amen.

It is finished.

(The sixth candle is extinguished.)

+ THE SEVENTH WORD +

- L Lord Jesus Christ, as you gave your life on the cross in our place, you commended your spirit into the loving hands of your heavenly Father.
- C Give us the grace to trust in you for all things.
- L When our last hour comes, grant us peace, that we may close our eyes with confidence, knowing that we also will dwell forever in the hands of our heavenly Father.
- C Amen.

Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.

(The seventh candle is extinguished.)

(After the last candle is extinguished, a book may be closed loudly or other loud sound produced to indicate the total completion of Christ's mission. You may then choose to observe a moment of silence.)

Saturday

Holy Saturday

L In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

Gradual Hebrews 12:2

L O come, let us fix our eyes on Jesus,
C the founder and perfecter of our faith,
L who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame,
C and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Verse of the Day: Joel 2:13; Mark 10:45

L Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love;
C Even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Kyrie

L O Lord,	C Have Mercy on us.
L O Christ,	C Have Mercy on us.
L O Lord,	C Have Mercy on us.

1 Peter 3:17–22

¹⁷For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil.

¹⁸For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, ¹⁹in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, ²⁰because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. ²¹Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.

Matthew 27:57–66

⁵⁷When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. ⁵⁹And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud ⁶⁰and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock. And he rolled a great stone to the entrance of the tomb and went away. ⁶¹Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

⁶²Next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate ⁶³and said, "Sir, we remember how that impostor said, while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise.' ⁶⁴Therefore order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples go and steal him away and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last fraud will be worse than the first." ⁶⁵Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers. Go, make it as secure as you can." ⁶⁶So they went and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone and setting a guard.

Joseph of Arimathea was a rich man! It has become common in the last few years to vilify the rich. Sometimes rich people seem to deserve the criticism that they receive. However, it is important to remember that being rich is not a sin and that rich people can also be faithful! While Peter was in hiding, a rich man named Joseph of Arimathea made sure that Jesus' body received a proper burial.

Today, inside the Church of the Holy Sepulchre you can visit the gravesite of Jesus. It was originally a tomb cut in the rock by Joseph to be used for his burial.

On Palm Sunday, a donkey owner gave his never-ridden steed to Jesus for His temporary use because the Lord had need of it (Luke 19:31). On Holy Saturday, we remember that Joseph gave his new unused tomb to Jesus for His temporary use because the Lord had need of it. (It also fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah 53:9. As a side note, the care of Jesus' body in death should serve as an example for those contemplating their own funerals.)

On this Holy Saturday, as we recall Jesus' repose in the tomb, let us remember that He sanctifies the graves of the saints. As His time in the burial chamber ended in His resurrection, so also we rejoice that our time in the grave will end when we join all believers in the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Prayer: O God, creator of heaven and earth, grant that as the crucified body of Your dear Son was laid in the tomb and rested on this holy Sabbath, so we may await with Him the coming of the third day, and rise with Him to newness of life, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
