The Eighth Sunday after Pentecost July 26, 2020

“If God is for us, who can be against us?” This great question is asked by the Apostle Paul in our Epistle Lesson today. Some may ask, “Is God really for us?” The answer repeated from Genesis through Revelation over and over again is a resounding “YES! GOD IS FOR US!” Unfortunately, despite all that God has done for us in Christ, many are still against Him. A life of faith is one that trusts God’s promises from beginning to end. A life of faith is one that recognizes that God treasured us so much that he did not spare His own Son!

L In the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

L Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth. (Psalm 124:8)

L Who can discern his errors? Forgive my hidden faults.

C Keep your servant also from willful sins; may they not rule over me. (Psalm 19:12, 13)

L If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord who could stand?

C But with You there is forgiveness; therefore You are feared. (Psalm 130:3–4)

L Let us, confess before God that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and as His people let us take refuge in His infinite mercy seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, saying:

C God, be merciful to me, a sinner, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen. (Luke 18:13)

L Almighty God, merciful Father, in Your holy Church, You daily and richly forgive us our sins and grant us new life through Your Spirit. Be in our midst, enliven our faith, and graciously receive our prayer and praise; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

Introit Psalm 105:2–6; antiphon 105:1

L Oh give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!

C Sing to him, sing praises to him;
tell of all his wondrous works!

L Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice!

C Seek the Lord and his strength;
seek his presence continually!

L Remember the wondrous works that he has done,
his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,

C O offspring of Abraham, his servant,
children of Jacob, his chosen ones!

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

L Oh give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!

Kyrie

- L O Lord, C Have mercy on us.
L O Christ, C Have mercy on us.
L O Lord, C Have mercy on us.

Gloria in Excelsis ~ Glory to God in the Highest

- L Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
C Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father: We worship You, we give You thanks, and we praise You for Your glory.
L Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, You are Lord and God, You are the Lamb of God:
C Lord Jesus Christ, You take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.
L Lord Jesus Christ, You are seated at the right hand of the Father; and we ask you to graciously receive our prayer.
C For You alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

- L Let us pray: Almighty and everlasting God, give us an increase of faith, hope, and love, that, receiving what You have promised, we may love what You have commanded; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
C Amen.

Deuteronomy 7:6–9

⁶“For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth. ⁷It was not because you were more in number than any other people that the LORD set his love on you and chose you, for you were the fewest of all peoples, ⁸but it is because the LORD loves you and is keeping the oath that he swore to your fathers, that the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ⁹Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations.

- L This is the Word of the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

Gradual Romans 11:33, 36

- L Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!
C For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.

Psalms 125

- L ¹Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever.
C ²As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people, from this time forth and forevermore.
L ³For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land allotted to the righteous, lest the righteous stretch out their hands to do wrong.

C ⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts!

L ⁵But those who turn aside to their crooked ways the LORD will lead away with evildoers!
Peace be upon Israel!

Romans 8:28–39

²⁸And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

³¹What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³²He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? ³³Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ³⁶As it is written,

“For your sake we are being killed all the day long;
we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Verse Matthew 13:35b

L Alleluia. I will open my mouth in parables;

C I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world. Alleluia.

Matthew 13:44–52

L The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 13th chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

⁴⁴[Jesus said:] “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

⁴⁵“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, ⁴⁶who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

⁴⁷“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. ⁴⁸When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. ⁴⁹So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous ⁵⁰and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

⁵¹“Have you understood all these things?” They said to him, “Yes.” ⁵²And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

L This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Devotional thoughts:

“There is an island in the North Atlantic where people have been looking for an incredible treasure for more than 200 years.” So begins each episode of The Curse of Oak Island, a television series on the History Channel that has been running for seven seasons. It involves two brothers from Michigan on a quest to find a treasure on an island in southern Nova Scotia, Canada.

I have to admit that this reality television series has captured my interest. There is something appealing about this band of adventurers on a quest to uncover a well-hidden secret treasure. I am not alone in this fascination with Oak Island. In fact, Franklin Roosevelt, the 32nd president of the United States is among the numerous people who have sought to unravel the enigma of this mysterious hidden treasure.

When Jesus spoke The Parable of the Hidden Treasure, it was with a complete understanding of human nature. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.” The Curse of Oak Island is simply a contemporary example of His insight into the heart and soul of humanity.

Is there a treasure that would cause you to sell all in order to acquire it? Might it be a fine pearl or other precious jewels?

Each of us has a certain amount of time and talent to spend on things that we value. We take up an occupation to provide for the things that we need or want. After providing the necessities of life, what are the things that your heart desires?

Some seek wealth. Others long for leisure. Some want power. Others are thrill-seekers. The list goes on and on.

Today is an opportunity to pause and consider our priorities. Jesus tells us that for Christians, our top priority, our greatest treasure is His Kingdom. In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus teaches, “Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you” (Matthew 6:33).

Why is God’s Kingdom so valuable? It supplies everything that our souls require. A shortlist includes love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. God’s Kingdom is ultimately fulfilled in the eternal happiness and bliss of paradise and the resurrection from the dead.

There is only one road that leads to God’s Kingdom. It is Jesus, himself, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. He welcomes all who come to Him. He sacrificed Himself on the cross to give you this treasure.

Unfortunately, many choose another path. Jesus urges, “Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many,” (Matthew 7:14). Or as the hymn writer declares:

Many spend their lives in fretting
Over trifles and in getting
Things that have no solid ground.
I shall strive to win a treasure
That will bring me lasting pleasure
And that now is seldom found.

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7).

God’s richest blessings to you in Christ.

L O Lord, we are Your people, chosen by Your grace to be Your own possession and granted mercy upon mercy. Hear Your people who cry to You in need, and remember us according to the favor You have shown to us in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

L O Lord, open our hearts to prayer and guide us in this holy conversation so that we may know those things for which we ought to pray and seek them according to Your grace.

C Amen.

L O Lord, bless our nation and those who govern us, and that we may use the gift of freedom to live holy, upright and godly lives, to the praise of Your glory. Bless all lawful occupations and professions, and that we may pursue honesty and virtue in all things.

C Amen.

L O Lord, grant that Your people may recognize the true treasure of the cross and rejoice in the resurrection, pursuing with all their hearts, minds, bodies and souls the things of Your kingdom.

C Amen.

L Almighty God, in this time of national distress and distrust, give our leaders wisdom for the challenges ahead. Send Your holy angels to watch over all of our loved ones, especially those who live in distant places. Protect all who attend to our needs during this time of national emergency and pandemic.

C Amen.

C I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

L Let us bless the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

L The Lord bless us, defend us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

C Amen.

Meditating on God's Word and Works

I will meditate on your wondrous works. Psalm 119:27
My eyes are awake through the night watches,
That I may meditate on Your word. Psalm 119:148 NKJV

The Week of the Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

July 27 – August 1

Introduction

Most modern forms of mediation turn a person inward. Biblical meditation turns a person outward toward what God has said and done especially what He has said and done through Jesus for our salvation.

Each Sunday has its own special theme directing us to meditate on God's word and actions. This theme is found in the Propers of the Day (the parts of the service that change week to week). From Advent through the Easter season these themes focus our attention on the life of Jesus from His birth to His death and resurrection. There is always much more in the propers than can be covered in any Sunday service. God willing, I will use the propers for Sunday to provide you with a devotion each day to help you mediate on what God has done for you.

Psalm 105 is an ode of praise that recalls God's grace to Abraham and his descendants by His miraculous delivery from slavery in Egypt through the Exodus. It calls upon His people to "Remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered" (Psalm 105:5).

We, too, give thanks to the Lord when we remember His wondrous works and miracles. Without too much effort, each of us can recall God's divine hand touching our lives. Sometimes these miracles are immediately apparent as when He delivers us from an automobile accident or a deadly illness. Other times we recognize His wondrous works when we ponder the past and see how God has directed us through the twists and turns of life.

God's most wondrous work and His greatest miracle is delivering us from the bondage of sin and death. He sent us a Redeemer greater than Moses. He sent us His own dear Son who by His cross delivers us through the waters of baptism that works forgiveness of sins, rescues from death and the devil, and gives us eternal salvation. He is shepherding us through the difficulties and wilderness of this life until we reach the Promised Land of life with Him forever in the eternal mansions of heaven.

Oh, give thanks to the Lord, remembering the wondrous works that He has done, and His miracles in our lives.

L Let us pray. O Lord, as we call upon Your name, we remember Your awesome deeds of deliverance. Grant that we may live each day trusting You as we make known Your deeds among the peoples through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, ever one God world without end.

C Amen

Tuesday

L In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Verse Matthew 13:35b

L Alleluia. I will open my mouth in parables;

C I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world. Alleluia.

L Let us pray. Almighty and everlasting God, give us an increase of faith, hope, and love, that, receiving what You have promised, we may love what You have commanded; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

From east to west and north to south, the daily headlines are distressing. The pandemic is raging and so are people. There seems to be so much hate and distrust in the world even among those who claim to be loving people. This all underscores the fact that in this life we always need an increase in faith, hope, and love.

Without faith and hope, we are driven to despair. With faith and hope, we know that God is in control and that He will ultimately turn curses to blessings just as He did when He used the cross to bring forgiveness. With faith and hope, we can look past our current crisis to peace and joy.

What does the world need? Love! Not romance or sensuality. We need love. Our current culture is clueless with it comes to love. It confuses love with self-gratification. Real love is the sacrificial giving of yourself. Real love is Jesus dying on the cross and saying, "Father, forgive them."

To learn about real love, take a moment to read 1 Corinthians 13, the great love chapter of the Bible. Follow that up with 1 John 4, where we read, "This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another," (1 John 4:10-11 NIV).

"So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love," (1 Corinthians 13:13).

Prayer: Almighty and everlasting God, give us an increase of faith, hope, and love, that, receiving what You have promised, we may love what You have commanded; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

C ²As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people, from this time forth and forevermore.
L ³For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land allotted to the righteous, lest the righteous stretch out their hands to do wrong.
C ⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts!
L ⁵But those who turn aside to their crooked ways the LORD will lead away with evildoers!
Peace be upon Israel!

“Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion.” Human fragility is a reality faced by all. No one is completely self-sufficient. No matter how strong and healthy, there is always some force or disease that can bring a person down.

Only the Lord can provide the safety and protection that we all crave. When we trust in the Lord, wickedness can never overcome us. By faith, we are surrounded by God’s saving hand. He renews His love for us each day when we turn to Him for forgiveness.

Ultimate peace is ours in the Prince of Peace who came to save sinners, of whom I am foremost.

Prayer: O Lord, grant us the peace that passes all understanding. Let us see Your protecting presence in our lives each and every day. . Amen.

Deuteronomy 7:6–9

⁶“For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth. ⁷It was not because you were more in number than any other people that the LORD set his love on you and chose you, for you were the fewest of all peoples, ⁸but it is because the LORD loves you and is keeping the oath that he swore to your fathers, that the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ⁹Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations.

Do you recall spending time with an inquisitive youngster? You know the one. Every time you make a statement, this curious child asks, “Why?”.

We never outgrow this curiosity. We may not always ask the question but we may think about it.

The Old Testament lesson for this week answers the question, “Why did God choose Israel for his treasured possession?” It is not because they were great in number. It was because God was keeping His promise!

You also may wonder, “Why did God choose me?”. Unless I’m badly mistaken, you are not the brightest, strongest, fastest, most beautiful, most holy, or most caring person in the world. You are a sinner!

Yet God in His steadfast love has chosen you “before the foundation of the world” to be His in Christ (Ephesians 1:4). Why? The Living Bible puts it this way, “He did this because he wanted to!” (Ephesians 1:5 TLB). No other reason is necessary!

Because of His steadfast love, He has redeemed you from the house of slavery to sin and keeps His promises to you. In Christ, He grants you life and salvation!

Prayer: O Lord God, thank You for Your amazing grace that saved a wretch like me. I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind but now I see. Amen.

³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

This is one of the most amazing passages in Scripture. It declares that God makes all things work together for your good! This does not mean that everything that happens to you is good. There are sin and evil in the world. Yet God in His wisdom and power is able to turn evil to good, death to life. One of the most striking examples of this is Joseph in the Old Testament (Genesis 30-50). His father loved him. His brothers were jealous and wanted to kill him. They sold him into slavery. As a slave in Egypt, he rose to prominence in a wealthy household but was falsely accused and thrown into prison. Yet God was able to use all the bad things that happened to him to make him second-in-command of all of Egypt. Upon meeting his brothers again in Egypt, he is able to declare, “You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today.”

So also is it true for us. Often, we are able to look back upon life and see things which at the time seemed like curses, turn into blessings. Over and over again God takes you through the twists and turns of life and makes them turn out for your good. The ultimate example of this is Jesus on the cross. Death turns to resurrection. We too look to the day when all evil is behind us and death has turned to life with Christ for all eternity.

Prayer: Thank you, Lord, that you have made us more than conquerors through Jesus Christ. Grant that we may live in faith knowing that nothing can ever separate us from Your love. Amen.

Saturday

L In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Gradual Romans 11:33, 36

L Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

C For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.

Verse Matthew 13:35b

L Alleluia. I will open my mouth in parables;

C I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world. Alleluia.

Paul writes in Romans 8:31, “If God is for us, who can be against us?”. How do we know that God is for us? We know God is for us because He did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all! For this reason, we know that God will give us everything we need for time and eternity.

Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword may all come our way but they cannot defeat us. Our victory is already won on the cross. This world’s prince may still scowl fierce as he will, He can harm us none. He’s judged; the deed is done; One little word can fell him.

Prayer:

The Word they still shall let remain
Nor any thanks have for it;
He’s by our side upon the plain
With His good gifts and Spirit.
And take they our life,
Goods, fame, child, and wife,
Though these all be gone,
Our vict’ry has been won;
The Kingdom ours remaineth.
Amen.
