

The Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sunday

October 1, 2023

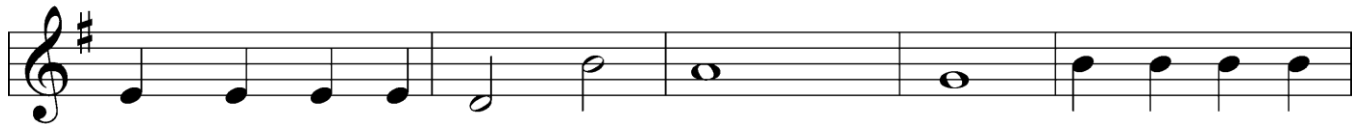

During the 40+ years of my active ministry in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, the first Sunday in October has been Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sunday. The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the recognized auxiliary of The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod to coordinate the women of the church. The LWML continues to be a leading force in missions and ministry around the world through their sacrificial gifts of mites, tithes, offerings, and tireless service. The work of these Lutheran Women in Mission reaches people of all walks of life, foreign and domestic, in the interest of the advance of witness, mercy, and life together for all those who are loved into life through the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Countless millions have been reached and saved alive for Christ through their ministry, and in these last days, we pray that their grace-filled, faithful labor in sacrifices and offerings may rise in the nostrils of our Lord in a way that is sweet and fragrant.

L In the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

L Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth. (Psalm 124:8)

L Who can discern his errors? Forgive my hidden faults.

C Keep your servant also from willful sins; may they not rule over me. (Psalm 19:12, 13)

L If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord who could stand?

C But with You there is forgiveness; therefore You are feared. (Psalm 130:3–4)

L Let us, confess before God that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and as His people let us take refuge in His infinite mercy seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, saying:

C God, be merciful to me, a sinner, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen. (Luke 18:13)

L Almighty God, merciful Father, in Your holy Church, You daily and richly forgive us our sins and grant us new life through Your Spirit. Be in our midst, enliven our faith, and graciously receive our prayer and praise; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

Introit Psalm 147:1–5; antiphon: Psalm 147:6

L The Lord lifts up the humble;
he casts the wicked to the ground.

C Praise the Lord! For it is good to sing praises to our God;
for it is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting.

L The Lord builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers the outcasts of Israel.

C He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

L He determines the number of the stars;
he gives to all of them their names.

C Great is our Lord, and abundant in power;
his understanding is beyond measure.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

L The Lord lifts up the humble;
he casts the wicked to the ground.

Gloria in Excelsis ~ Glory to God in the Highest

- L Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
- C Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father: We worship You, we give You thanks, and we praise You for Your glory.
- L Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, You are Lord and God, You are the Lamb of God:
- C Lord Jesus Christ, You take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.
- L Lord Jesus Christ, You are seated at the right hand of the Father; and we ask you to graciously receive our prayer.
- C For You alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

- L Let us pray: Almighty God, You exalted Your Son to the place of all honor and authority. Enlighten our minds by Your Holy Spirit that, confessing Jesus as Lord, we may be led into all truth; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- C Amen.

Collect for LWML Sunday

- L Most Gracious God and Father, we give You thanks this day for the ministry and work of all Your saints, especially for the women of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, may they always be ready to confess in thought, word, and deed, here in our country and throughout the world, Christ's work of redemption for all people; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- C Amen.

Ezekiel 18:1–4, 25–32

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’? ³As I live, declares the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel. ⁴Behold, all souls are mine; the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins shall die. . .

²⁵“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? ²⁶When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. ²⁷Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. ²⁸Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions that he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²⁹Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?

³⁰“Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. ³¹Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³²For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live.”

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Gradual Psalm 91:11; 103:1

L He will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

C Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

Psalm 25:1–10

L ¹To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

C ²O my God, in you I trust; let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me.

L ³Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame;
they shall be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

C ⁴Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths.

L ⁵Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long.

C ⁶Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

L ⁷Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of your goodness, O LORD!

C ⁸Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.

L ⁹He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

C ¹⁰All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Philippians 2: 1–18

¹So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, ²complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. ³Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. ⁴Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. ⁵Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. ⁹Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹⁴Do all things without grumbling or questioning, ¹⁵that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. ¹⁷Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Verse of the Day Matthew 28:18b

- L Alleluia, Alleluia. All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
C Alleluia.

Matthew 21:23–32

- L The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 21st chapter.
C Glory to You, O Lord.

²³When [Jesus] entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?” ²⁴Jesus answered them, “I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man?” And they discussed it among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ ²⁶But if we say, ‘From man,’ we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet.” ²⁷So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

²⁸“What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’ ²⁹And he answered, ‘I will not,’ but afterward he changed his mind and went. ³⁰And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, ‘I go, sir,’ but did not go. ³¹Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him.

- L This is the Gospel of the Lord.
C Praise to You, O Christ.

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Devotional thoughts:

I have lived through (endured?) eighteen presidential elections. The presidential primary debate this last week reminded me that this will be my nineteenth! Some elections are more memorable than others. The first one that I remember is the election of 1960.

I remember JFK and his bold challenge to reach the moon by the end of the decade. I was under the weather and not at school the day he died so I was watching TV when the first report of his shooting interrupted regular programming. I watched his funeral. If I searched hard enough, I could find a Kennedy half-dollar that I collected when they first were minted.

God has blessed America with great leaders. We have also had to endure those with significant flaws. I thank God that He has blessed us with a system of government that is of the people, by the people, for the people, and is larger than any one individual.

As in every presidential election, we are bombarded by campaign promises. Ignoring attacks made on opposing candidates, each candidate proclaims what they believe the voters want to hear.

In a way, many presidential candidates are like the second son in Jesus' account of the two brothers. They are all talk but no action. American history is littered with broken campaign promises. They are too numerous even to begin listing them.

But before we get too far afield in criticizing those running for office or the chief priests and elders of the Gospel lesson, it is more important to see ourselves in this Parable of the Two Sons. Have you ever been hurt by those who are "all talk and no action?" Have you ever been "all talk and no action" when it comes to promises made? Have you ever been let down by someone when you depended on their commitment to you? Have you ever let down someone who depended on your word?

It should be no surprise when we see worldly people display a lack of integrity. However, it is particularly disappointing when God's people are found wanting in truthfulness and honor. Through the years, I have heard many stories of people who have been hurt by pastors or people who call themselves Christians. Likewise, I know of numerous accounts of congregations deceiving pastors with false or misleading promises. Such is life in a sinful world. None of us live up to God's standard! May God grant us this recognition.

The tax collectors and prostitutes are represented by the first son. They made no pretense of obedience. They took pride in flatly refusing the father's request.

You have probably met many people like this. Their ungodly attitude is on display for all to see. They may have foul language or a riotous lifestyle. They may slander Christians and call them crazy. Yet often these are the ones who find the Gospel message so wonderful and appealing.

I once met a young husband and father like that. I was convinced that I would never see him in church. Yet by God's grace and the working of the Holy Spirit, I was given the opportunity to instruct him in the faith and confirm him. A few years later, he told me that he and his family would drive in the car and sing our Lutheran liturgy. His favorite part was "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me...Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation!"

How did this happen? Jesus explains at the end of His parable. "John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him."

When we are smug and self-righteous, it is too easy to join with the chief priests and elders. It is too easy to believe that we have earned a place in God's kingdom. But in truth, we are "all talk and no action." Promises to live holy and sinless lives are empty. In thought, word, and deed, we fail to go into the vineyard.

Only when we recognize the great disappointment our actions bring to God do we turn from our sin and believe in our Savior. We join with the tax collectors, sinners, slanderers, and thieves, laying our sins at the foot of Jesus' cross. We hear His soothing words, "Father, forgive them." By God's grace and the working of the Holy Spirit, we sing:

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7).

God’s richest blessings to you in Christ.

Prayers

L Merciful Lord, encourage us by Your Holy Spirit, that we may not lose heart. Make us to be of one mind and will, that we may serve You with gladness. Bless the work of the Lutheran Women’s Missionary League here and throughout the world.

C Amen.

L Merciful Lord, sustain all fathers, mothers and children; husbands and wives; friends and neighbors; laborers and employers; and teachers and students. Enable us all to serve our neighbors in godly vocations, delighting in the Lord’s lovingkindness

C Amen.

L Merciful Lord, the name of Jesus stands above all names. Before it we bow our knees and confess Him as Lord and God. Inspire in us true devotion and worship as proclaim His name throughout all the world.

C Amen.

L Merciful Lord, kindle Your divine light in us that we may hold fast to the word of life and shine brightly in the midst of this world’s darkness.

C Amen.

L Righteous God, You give leaders to every nation and people. Grant us good and wise public servants defend the innocent and punish evil. Guard those who protect us, especially our armed forces, police and firefighters.

C Amen.

L Heavenly Father, Your Son came to heal the sick and forgive sinners. Hear our prayers for those who suffer in any way. Restore them according to Your gracious will, and strengthen their trust in Your faithfulness and love. Let Your blessings rest upon all medical personnel and first responders who come to our aid in time of need.

C Amen.

The Lutheran Women’s Missionary League Pledge

C In fervent gratitude for the Savior’s dying love and His blood-bought gift of redemption we dedicate ourselves to Him with all that we are and have; and in obedience to His call for workers in the harvest fields, we pledge Him our willing service wherever and whenever He has need of us. We consecrate to our Savior our hands to work for Him, our feet to go on His errands, our voice to sing His praises, our lips to proclaim His redeeming love, our silver and our gold to extend His Kingdom, our will to do His will, and every power of our life to the great task of bringing the lost and the erring into eternal fellowship with Him. Amen.

Serve the Lord with Gladness Tune: Onward Christian Soldiers,
Lutheran Service Book 662, Lutheran Worship 518, Lutheran Hymnal 658

“Serve the Lord with gladness!” It is He alone
Who redeemed us sinners, Guides us as His own
To enjoy the blessings Of His love and grace,
Will at last in glory Meet us face to face.
Onward, then, for Jesus! Let this be our aim:
“Serve the Lord with gladness!” Glorify His name!

“Serve the Lord with gladness!” He gave us command
To proclaim His Gospel Now in every land
So that fellow sinners May, like us, be blest.
Leading them to Jesus, We can serve Him best.
Onward, then, for Jesus! Let this be our aim:
“Serve the Lord with gladness!” Glorify His name!

“Serve the Lord with gladness!” There’s no greater joy
Than to serve the Master, Work in His employ.
As we build His kingdom Angels, too, rejoice
Over every sinner Brought to hear His voice.
Onward, then, for Jesus! Let this be our aim:
“Serve the Lord with gladness!” Glorify His name!

Text: Prof. Ernest Lewerenz

C I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

L Let us bless the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

L The Lord bless us, defend us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

The Week of

The Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

October 1 – 6, 2023

Introduction

Most modern forms of mediation turn a person inward. Biblical meditation turns a person outward toward what God has said and done especially what He has said and done through Jesus for our salvation.

Each Sunday has its own special theme directing us to meditate on God's word and actions. This theme is found in the Propers of the Day (the parts of the service that change week to week). From Advent through the Easter season these themes focus our attention on the life of Jesus from His birth to His death and resurrection. There is always much more in the propers than can be covered in any Sunday service. God willing, I will use the propers for Sunday to provide you with a devotion each day to help you meditate on what God has done for you.

Kyrie

L	O Lord,	C	Have Mercy on us.
L	O Christ,	C	Have Mercy on us.
L	O Lord,	C	Have Mercy on us.

Intros begin with an antiphon. An antiphon is a short verse or chant added at the beginning and end of the introit or psalm. It is sometimes used as a refrain in the middle of a psalm. The idea of using an antiphon is one of the oldest parts of Christian worship. It was brought over from the experience of worship in the synagogue.

In general, the antiphon is a verse from the psalm that echoes the theme. The antiphon for this week is Psalm 147:6, “The Lord lifts up the humble; he casts the wicked to the ground.”

It reflects the words of Jesus recorded in the Gospel lesson, where tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before the chief priests and elders! This is a reason to praise the Lord!

Psalm 147 is the second of the five “Hallelujah Psalms” that complete the Book of Psalms. Hallelujah is Hebrew for “Praise the Lord.” In these five psalms, the word praise occurs 44 times in the ESV translation!

Here we praise the Lord for lifting up the humble, those who are poor in spirit (Matthew 5:3). If you have time, read all five of these psalms. You will discover that we praise the Lord because He heals the brokenhearted; He gathers the outcasts; He makes peace in your borders, and He fills you with the finest of the wheat.

We learn that all creation praises the Lord. Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth praise the Lord! Young men and maidens together, old men and children praise the Lord!

Why do you praise the Lord? We praise the Lord because, in Jesus, there is peace on earth, goodwill toward men; In Jesus, there is forgiveness and salvation; In Jesus, we will live in Paradise forever; In Jesus, the Lord lifts up the humble!

L Let us pray. O Lord, let me never stand before You in foolish pride. Grant that I may humbly confess my sins and receive forgiveness, life, and salvation.

C Amen

Tuesday

L In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Enlighten our minds by Your Holy Spirit that, confessing Jesus as Lord, we may be led into all truth; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Our collect this week directs our attention to Jesus. His birth was humble. He was raised in a humble village. He had no place to call home. He was insulted, beaten, and crucified. Yet He did not sin.

Because Jesus was completely obedient to His Father, God raised Him from the dead and exalted Him to His right hand. He placed Him over all, where He rules the world for the sake of the Church (Ephesians 1:19-22).

We pray that we may truly believe in Jesus and confess Him as Lord. We pray that we will faithfully hear His word of life and truth and trust in all of His promises.

Prayer: Almighty God, You exalted Your Son to the place of all honor and authority. Enlighten our minds by Your Holy Spirit that, confessing Jesus as Lord, we may be led into all truth; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Psalm 25:1–10

L ¹To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

C ²O my God, in you I trust; let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me.

L ³Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame;
they shall be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

C ⁴Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths.

L ⁵Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long.

C ⁶Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

L ⁷Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me,
for the sake of your goodness, O LORD!

C ⁸Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.

L ⁹He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

C ¹⁰All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

In Psalm 25, David continues the theme for this week of God caring for the humble. Yet we miss the point if we do not recognize that true humility is the recognition of sin!

David pleads in this psalm, “Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions.” It is easy to be plagued by guilt from past wrongs. David felt guilt and in humility pleaded for forgiveness.

Unfortunately, our psalm this week ends at verse 10. However, let us also consider verse 11. “For your name's sake, O Lord, pardon my guilt, for it is great.” This is the plea of a humble man. May we join him in this plea.

Thanks be to God. He has heard our plea for mercy and sent His only-begotten Son to be our Savior. We rejoice in the Lord's steadfast love and faithfulness. He has forgiven our sins and granted us eternal life.

Prayer: O Lord, move our hearts to join with King David in true humility. Grant us grace to confess our sins and receive forgiveness from our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Ezekiel 18:1-4, 25-32

¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²“What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’? ³As I live, declares the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel. ⁴Behold, all souls are mine; the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins shall die. . .

²⁵“Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? ²⁶When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. ²⁷Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. ²⁸Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions that he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²⁹Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?

³⁰“Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. ³¹Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³²For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live.”

No one can doubt that injustice exists in our land. It always has and it always will. As long as sinful people are in charge, injustice will exist in every nation.

Equally distressing is seeing people suffer at the hands of those who claim to want justice. Innocent people have been hurt, property has been destroyed, and bystanders have been killed, all in the name of justice.

This section of Ezekiel is a look at God's justice. Ezekiel tells us this message from God, “the soul who sins shall die.” There is no escaping God's justice. Everyone is responsible for their own crimes and transgressions.

I have no one but myself to blame for my sin. I deserve each and every consequence of sin that I receive. This is justice.

How thankful I am that God is not only just but He is also merciful. God's justice demands payment for sin. God's mercy provides that payment in the person of Jesus, whose holy precious blood, innocent suffering, and death are more valuable than gold or silver.

There is no way that one person could pay for the sins of another (Psalm 49:7). However, since Jesus is not only a man but also God, His death on the cross paid for the sins of the whole world (John 1:29).

Your sins have been covered, paid for, and removed from you. Now you stand before God in Christ's holiness.

Prayer: O Lord, as we seek justice for the innocent in our land, grant that we may also be people of mercy. Amen.

Philippians 2: 1–18

¹So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, ²complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. ³Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. ⁴Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. ⁵Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. ⁹Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹²Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

¹⁴Do all things without grumbling or questioning, ¹⁵that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. ¹⁷Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

Jesus is the perfect example of humility. Although He was (and is) completely God, He “made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.”

It is for this reason that Paul urges us all, “Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.”

It is difficult living in “a crooked and twisted generation.” Yet since we know Jesus, since we have been forgiven of all our sins and have the gift of eternal life, we can “shine as lights in the world.”

In this time of difficulty in our nation, may God grant that His people would bring the message of light and life to people around them.

Prayer: O Lord, grant us a humble spirit. Move us to look to the interest of others and let our light shine through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Gradual Psalm 91:11; 103:1

L He will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

C Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

Kyrie

L O Lord, C Have Mercy on us.

L O Christ, C Have Mercy on us.

L O Lord, C Have Mercy on us.

We begin a new gradual this week with the words of Psalm 91:11, “He will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.” Satan used these words to tempt Jesus to throw himself from the pinnacle of the temple. Jesus’ apt response was a quotation from Deuteronomy 6:16, “You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.”

During these uncertain and stressful times, we can learn a valuable lesson from these two verses. Indeed, as we conduct the business of our lives, we need not fear. God’s angels serve to protect us. As we travel to and fro, as we live out our vocations, God’s divine protection is always there. Many of us can give examples of God’s preservation and protection in our lives.

Nevertheless, we should never be foolish in the risks we take. As Jesus noted, this is doing what the Bible forbids.

We trust God to protect us but we look both ways before we cross the street. We trust God to protect us but we practice proper food preparation and sanitation. We trust God to protect us but we are also cautious in our activities.

We follow the Good Shepherd into green pastures and beside still waters. He is with us as we walk through the Valley of Death. However, we never knowingly cast ourselves from the pinnacle of the temple.

Prayer:

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.
